

Surf spots

Note that I've added some links. Those are the "exact" location of the place.

If you make a POLL as to north or south of The regional Park des Landes de Gascogne I could give more options. Of if is north by the Regional Natural Park de Médoc, I do have a couple but less suggestions.

Mimizan

Camping:

- FREE Aire de camping-car - Avenue Maurice Martin (GPS: 44.2013, -1.2843). Basic facilities, close to the beach.
- FREE-Wild camping. A normal Parking close to the beach, no facilities nearby. VERY close to the beach.
- Paid Camping: Camping Club Marina Landes (GPS: 44.1895, -1.2810). Well-equipped with a short walk to the ocean.

Surf Spots:

Plage Sud, suitable for intermediate surfers.

Plage de Nudist, good right hander over the right side of the beach.

Moliets-ett-maa

Camping

- Paid: Camping les Cigales, busy, people from all over Europe of all ages but mostly early 20s. Pricing and amenities are decent.
- Free: It's right next to les Cigales, near its back access. Up until 6-7pm you can still walk in and make use of amenities.

A bit of a walk north (right of the estuary) and the beach is yours.

Carcans

- Free Camping: It's actually paid parking but after the summer (end of August) no one checks whether someone is staying overnight.
- Paid Camping: Be true to yourself and pay the fee 😊

Surf Spots: 20min walk north of the beach is a good sand bank, Lefts and Rights. Locals could get territorial.

Plage Nudist: right in front of the beach access when walking through the woods. In other words, south of the main beach access. Had it once 9 days straight for just myself.

Biarritz

Camping:

- Paid Camping: Camping Le Pavillon Royall. Offers good amenities and is almost NO walk to the beach. Higher tier pricing
- Free: tricky to get there but very private spot to a very nice wave to yourself. Not feeling too adventurous? The one above is just "next door"

Vieux-Boucau-les-Baines

Camping Locations:

Paid: It is just a great location; amenities are nice and clean. Left side of the camp is where you find the campervans with the surf ambience

Also Paid: Isolated since it is in Soustons, “Lake” on one side, Ocean over the other. Very quiet Aire

Travel Insights and Hacks

- Sunrise workouts or yoga and Sunset Views: Nothing beat an ocean sunset. Well yes, having a drink while watching the sunset, at the ocean, with good company.
- Local Markets: support the community
- Quiet Beaches: just walk along the beach, normally north of it's main access and after 20-30 minutos you'll find yourself alone or with 2-3 nudes around.
- Surfing Lessons: even pro surfers get coached, pay a lesson and boot-up your surfing
- Best Times to Visit: mid-September to late October for great weather and surf conditions without peak season crowds.
